Introduction

Historically, the private sector has played a prominent role in the development and support of initiatives that improve the quality of life of the communities it serves. As socio-economic changes take place in our society, the mandatory need for partnership between the public, private and community sectors is essential for its wellbeing. At First BanCorp we believe that we achieve our goal of serving our communities by partnering with nonprofit organizations, associations, public and private agencies that have as their main focus to improve the quality of life of the low- and moderate-income individuals across the communities located in Puerto Rico, U.S. Virgin Islands and Florida. As described by our slogan, "TOGETHER WE ARE ONE", First BanCorp believes that society requires of everyone's efforts to succeed. Therefore, we have made a commitment that with our support in a partnership with other organizations, groups or individuals; we can provoke innovative social and economic changes.

First BanCorp and its subsidiaries supports neighborhoods in Puerto Rico, U.S. Virgin Islands and Florida, where we have a retail bank presence, through employee volunteerism, financial services, and grants to promote healthy communities. We believe that our outreach to communities and community organizations and our commitment to our customers make a difference in the continued growth and stability of our assessment areas and to improve the quality of life of its citizens "TOGETHER WE ARE ONE".

First BanCorp History

First chartered in 1948, FirstBank was the first S&L institution established in Puerto Rico with a capital of $200,000.

Since its inception the Bank played a fundamental role in improving the quality of life in Puerto Rico, by helping thousands of citizens to acquire their first home, thus enhancing their social and economic status.

Thanks to the visionary leadership of its management team, the institution experienced an impressive growth and transformation, becoming one of Puerto Rico's leading financial institutions with approximately 3,000 employees. It offers a full range of financial services to individual, commercial, and corporate customers through its more than a hundred financial facilities in Puerto Rico, the U.S. mainland, the U.S., and British Virgin Islands.

We recognize that our growth as a business is inextricably linked to the growth and economic vitality of the communities we serve. In response, FirstBank has developed or worked in partnership with other financial institutions on products that serve all our customers. We also sponsor community development events; host seminars to inform the public about lending products, savings accounts, and personal financial management; and provide technical assistance by working with community-based organizations.

Our community investment grant program is focused on support for affordable housing, economic development organizations, health, social services, and education. We also emphasize programs to improve financial education and promote economic development, an area that has an enduring impact on our neighbors' capacity to enhance their quality of live.

Applications Guidelines
